

Registration Application for Indians

Program for Administering the Fuel Tax Exemption for Indians

Use this form only if you are an Indian within the meaning of the Indian Act and you wish to apply for the Attestation d'inscription (registration card) required to benefit from the Program for Administering the Fuel Tax Exemption for Indians. The program was introduced so that Indians, band councils, tribal councils and band-empowered entities can purchase fuel on Indian reserves or in Indian settlements in Québec without having to pay the fuel tax.

Filing an application

Send this form, duly completed, and the copy of both sides of your Certificate of Indian Status to:

3800, rue de Marly
Québec (Québec) G1X 4A5

Request for modification or replacement

If you wish to modify your registration information, or if you need your registration card to be replaced, either use the online services available on our website or complete form CA-1001.M-V, Request to Modify Registration Information or to Replace the Attestation d'Inscription Issued to Indians.

Online services

Instead of using this form, you can apply using the online services available at revenuquebec.ca. Doing so will speed up the processing of your application.

Providing a copy of your Certificate of Indian Status

You must enclose a copy of both sides of your Certificate of Indian Status issued by Aboriginal Affairs and Northern Development Canada (AANDC); otherwise, your application will be rejected.

Request for information or forms

For more information, or to obtain copies of forms, go to our website or contact our client services at 418 659-4692 (Québec City region), at 514 873-4692 (Montréal region), or, toll-free, at 1 800 567-4692 (other regions).

Providing the required information

If you do not provide your name and address or if the information provided is not valid, your application will not be processed. Moreover, failure to provide all required information and documents may cause your application to be denied or delay the issuance of your registration card.
