

Tax Credit for Home-Support Services for Seniors

Check the appropriate box for yourself and, if you are claiming the credit on behalf of your couple, for your spouse on December 31.

You: 4 non-dependent dependent

Dependent seniors must have a written certificate from a health professional (see the definition of "dependent senior" at line 458 of the guide).

Your spouse: 5 non-dependent dependent

Check the appropriate box for each statement below.

You received advance payments of the tax credit for home-support services for seniors in 2022.

Yes No

Your family situation was the same throughout 2022 (for example, for the entire year, you either had a spouse or you did not).

Yes No

If your spouse died in 2022, check No.

You lived in the same dwelling throughout 2022.

Yes No

If you checked Yes for all of the above statements and have provided the information required to renew your advance payments for 2022, you can choose not to complete parts A through F. If that is the case:

- On line 2, enter any amounts you paid for eligible services for which you did not apply for advance payments. We will calculate the additional amount to which you are entitled.

2

- Enter the amount from box D of your RL-19 slip on lines 441 and 458 of your return and enter 0 on line 466.

If you checked No for any of the above statements or have not provided the information required to renew your advance payments for 2022, complete this schedule. You may need to complete more than one part if you moved in the year.

If you had a spouse on December 31 and you are both entitled to this tax credit but did not live together, complete both the part that applies to you and the part that applies to your spouse.

See the instructions for line 458 in the guide.
