Capital cost allowance (CCA)

Important

Beginning in 2006, you must use the capital cost of the vehicle as the base amount to calculate CCA. Thus, the amounts in columns 2, 3 and 4 must now include the cost of acquisitions or the proceeds of dispositions, instead of only the portion of that cost or those proceeds related to the use of the vehicle for employment purposes. The CCA that may be claimed is determined in this section.

Therefore, for 2006, the undepreciated capital cost (UCC) at the end of 2005 cannot be carried forward as such to column 2 (see note 1 below).

For instructions on how to complete the work chart below, see the guide (IN-118-V).

Work chart

Dates of acquisitions in the year	Cost of vehicles acquired in the year (excluding taxes)	1 Class number	2 Undepreciated capital cost (UCC) at the beginning of the year <sup>1</sup>	3 Cost of acquisitions in the year (including taxes) <sup>2</sup>	4 Proceeds of dispositions in the year <sup>2</sup>	5 UCC after acquisitions and dispositions (col. 2 + col. 3 - col. 4) <sup>2</sup>	6 Adjustment for acquisitions in the year (if col. 3 is more than col. 4: 50% x [col. 3 - col. 4])	7 Base amount (col. 5 - col. 6) <sup>2</sup>	8 Rates (%)	9 CCA for the year (col. 7 x 30%, or a lower amount)	10 UCC at the end of the year (col. 5 - col. 9) <sup>3</sup>
		10.1							30
		10.1							30
		10							30

Add the amounts in column 9. Carry the result to line 34.

- If, at the end of 2005, you were using a vehicle for the purposes of your employment, the UCC at the end of 2005 cannot be carried forward as such to column 2. To obtain the amount to be entered in that column for 2006, you must do the following calculation: A ÷ B, where
 A = the UCC at the end of 2005 (from column 10 of the TP-59-V form completed for 2005); and
 B = the percentage of use for employment purposes for 2005 (from line 70 of the TP-59-V form completed for 2005).
 Furthermore, if, during the year, you received a GST or QST rebate relating to the CCA of a motor vehicle, you must subtract the rebate from the UCC at the beginning of the year.
- If you acquired or disposed of a motor vehicle in the year, special rules apply. See the guide (IN-118-V).
- If at the end of the year you no longer have a motor vehicle in a class, enter 0.
